LOCAL NEWS.

SLEIGH BELLS. - As appropriate to the occasion we reproduce Poe's beautiful lines: Hear the sledges with the belts-

Silver bells! What a world of merriment their melody fore tells!

How they tinkle, tinkle, tinkle, In the icy air of night! While the stars that oversprinkle All the heavens, seem to twinkle With a crystaline delight; Keeping time, time, time, In a sort of Runic rhyme, To the tintinabulation that so musically wells

From the bells, bells, bells, bells, Bells, bells, bells-From the jingling and the tinkling of the bells.

SLEIGHING. - We have seldom known finer sleighing, or more of it, than at present; and every evening and at night the sleighers hold "a carnival" on King street-the merry jingle of the sleigh bells, and the joyous shouts and laughter of the young folks, as they go dashing along at a furious speed, rendering the scene quite exciting, but we submit that to run the gauntlet of a continuous volley of snow balls, from both sides of the street, from Fairfax to Commerce, while it may be exhibarating, and tend to keep up the fun, detracts considerably from the enjoyment of the ride, and reminds from the enjoyment of the ride, and reminds dria and Fredericksburg Railway Company, due and belonging to the said Bodfish, Mills & Co., to the payment of the same.

The defendants, Bodfish, Mills & Co., not

SNOW BALLING .- This bilarious sport, just now in such vogue among the juvenile portion of our population, appears to be contagious, judging from the fact that the men, old and young, engage in it with as much apparent zest as the boys. During these dull times, when there is but little else to do, people are apt to seek any diversion to while away an hour or so, and as long as the snow balls are not made too hard, and not thrown with violence, and as the pastime appears to be enjoyed by all, we suppose nobody will object.

FARE ON THE W. A. & G. R. R.—The fare over this road, on the through trains being 50 cents, in order to accommodate the travel between this place and Washington, the agent here has been instructed to issue round trip tickets at 25 cents for the through as well as local trains, thus obviating a difficulty that has long existed in reference to the local travel on the road in the through trains. If passengers fail to procure a ticket, however, the regular fare on the through trains will be charged.

RETURNED.—Two colored boys who escaped from their former master, G. Watkins, of Montgomery county, Md., were brought before Judge Wylie, of the Supreme Court of the D. C., yesterday, on a writ of habeas corpus, and, after a hearing, the court ordered the children to be returned to Mr. Watkins. The ground of this county. A copy teste.

J. TACEY, Clerk. of such restitution was based upon evidence that the children had, under a Maryland statute, been apprenticed to Watkins after their emancipation.

SUFFRAGE IN THE D. C .- Mr. Noell introduced a bill in the House yesterday, to amend the act "to regulate the elective franchise in the District of Columbia" as follows:-"No person shall be disfranchised from voting or ineligible to office, on account of sex, and all parts of said act, of which this is amendatory, inconsistent with this act, are hereby repealed." Referred to District Committee.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.—We are informed that the Sunday Schools, in this place, are in a THOMAS PERRY, very flourishing condition, attended by large numbers of pupils, and faithfully conducted by ministers, superintendents and teachers. This may be said of all of them, we believe, without exception.

REQUISITION. - Wm. Payne was arrested in Washington, yesterday upon a charge of grand larceny, perpetrated in Virginia, made by George Strauder. The case was laid before Justice Walter, who directed the prisoner to be delivered to the Virginia authorities.

VISITING BRETHREN. - Last night one of the Lodges of Red Men of the District of Columbia visited their brethren in this city on a special train, and spent a very agreeable evening, returning about 12 o'clock.

THE MARKET is very poorly supplied, just now, with country produce. The severity of the weather prevents our country friends from coming in to town, to early market.

Snow.—There was another fall of snow, this morning-making, according to those who say they have counted-twelve, in all, this winter.

THAW. - After the snow the sun shone out, to-day, and there was a slight thaw. -WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says: -"The metropolitan police commissioners have just received an application for a position on the force by a colored man, who is backed by the recommendations of a dozen or more whites. It is stated on good authority that this will be at once followed up by a demand on the part of the black citizens of the District for a proportionate share of the clerkships in the departments, and, further, that perfect equality as to seats will be insisted upon in the churches and

The exercises at Trinity Church, on Sunday evening, were exceedingly impressive and interesting. Seventy-five ladies and seventeen gentlemen had the rite of confirmation administered to them by Rev. Bishop Clark, of Rhode Island.

The first reception this season of the ladies of the Executive Mansion, Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Stover, took place yesterday, and, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, Was attended by a large number of ladies and gentlemen.

MARRIED.

In Washington, on the 14th instant, General FRANK WHEATON, U.S. A., to MARIA B. MILLER. OBITUARY. Died, at Fairfax Court House, Va., after a short illness, on Monday, December 10th, 1866, Mrs. ANNA R., wife of Thomas R. Love, esq; a devoted wife, mother, and a true friend; thus suddenly has her family been bereft of its chief joy. Her ear was ever open to the call of the needy, and her kind, generous heart, was al-ways ready to advance the bappiness of those around her; and her numerous friends and relatives deeply deplore their loss. Time, alone, can mitigate the grief of her sadly afflicted family, and the recollection of her many virtues, will fondly and lastingly cling to those left behind, whose deep sorrows are still fresh, and daily seem to strengthen. But we must not murmur at the dealings of an all-wise providence; humble submission to His will is our duty, and here we trust the bereaved ones will find comfort. FRIEND.

Died, in Washington, on the 13th instant, WM. M. STEUART, aged 29 years.
